Reformation & Counter-Reformation

Great sacred music spanning the religious divide – from Monteverdi to Handel

Sunday 12 November at 6pm
St Peter's Sudbury CO10 2EA

Claire Coleman soprano, Psalmody, The John Jenkins Consort directed by Peter Holman

Almost exactly 500 years ago Martin Luther began the Reformation as a protest against the abuses of the Catholic church. The Reformation and the subsequent Counter-Reformation divided Europe into hostile armed camps for generations and led eventually to the 30 Years War, the most destructive conflict before modern times. But musicians continually crossed the religious divide and the great composers produced a creative synthesis of Protestant and Catholic sensibilities, often vividly reflecting the turmoil of the time.

This unusual and fascinating programme, much of it for divided choirs and six-part strings, ranges from Michael Praetorius's extraordinary Italianate setting of the Lutheran chorale 'Wachet auf' to Agostino Steffani's great Stabat Mater, probably composed in the 1690s as part of a plan to reconvert northern Germany. The theme is explored further in music by Heinrich Schütz and Handel (both eloquent prayers for peace in wartime), Johann Rosenmüller (a Protestant in Venice) and J.S. Bach (a reworking of a grand Sanctus by the Catholic Johann Caspar Kerll).

In memory of Nigel Rodley (1941-2017)

Tickets £18 (reserved), £12 (unreserved), reserved seats for two concerts £32

Pre-concert talk at 4.30pm in Gainsborough's House by Professor Stephen Rose

Now in its thirtieth year, the Suffolk Villages Festival brings high-quality performances of early music to rural East Anglia. Our venues are the fine historic churches of the Dedham Vale area: Stoke by Nayland, Nayland, Boxford, Hadleigh, Dedham and Sudbury – easily reached by road from London and the Suffolk coast via the A12 and from the Midlands via the A14. Colchester and Ipswich are the nearest mainline railway stations. # Gabriel's Message

Festive Music from Mediaeval England

Sunday 10 December at 6pm
St Mary's Church Dedham CO7 6DE

Mediva directed by Ann Allen
Ann Allen shawms & recorders
Adrien Reboisson shawms & recorders
Corina Marti recorders & clavicymbalum
Natalie Carducci fiddle
Erwan Picquet voice
Max Fiorani percussion

With a childrens' choir from local schools

Ann Allen's Baroque group Syrinx made a great impression when it was in residence during the 2016 Festival. Now she returns with the international line-up of virtuosos that is Mediva, one of Europe's most accomplished and innovative Mediaeval groups. It has appeared in many of the major music festivals in Britain and on the Continent, receiving enthusiastic reviews for its recordings, most recently for a CD of music by Hildegard of Bingen and the contemporary composer Hugh Collins Rich.

Gabriel's Message is a vivid celebration of Advent and Christmas. Songs, carols and dances from Mediaeval England evoke the sounds of winter, from harsh winds to crackling fires, from a peal of bells to a baby's cry.

In this special concert Mediva performs with a choir of children drawn from local schools and trained by Tom Stapleton as part of our developing education programme.

'Played and sung with much beauty and impressive commitment in a voyage of discovery for composer, performers and listeners alike', *Choir & Organ.

Tickets £18 (reserved), £12 (unreserved), reserved seats for two concerts £32
